

Closet Organization Plan

Give every item a zone, then keep only what you love and wear.

CLOSET

DATE

Empty the closet, sort every piece into three piles, then assign each zone below before you put anything back.

Map Your Closet Zones

check each zone once it's cleared & assigned

☐	Top / High Shelf	Out-of-season clothes, luggage, spare bedding, rarely-used bins
☐	Upper Rod	Shirts, blouses, jackets, short items you reach for daily
☐	Lower Rod	Pants, skirts, everyday hanging basics (double-hang zone)
☐	Long-Hang Rod	Dresses, coats, robes, jumpsuits, full-length pieces
☐	Shelves / Cubbies	Folded knits & jeans, handbags, hats, stack in bins
☐	Drawers	Underwear, socks, loungewear, small folded accessories
☐	Floor / Shoe Zone	Shoes on a rack, boots upright, laundry basket, vacuum bags
☐	Door & Walls	Hooks for belts & bags, jewelry board, mirror, scarf hanger

Sort Every Category

work one category at a time, decide, don't linger

CATEGORY	KEEP	DONATE	TOSS
Tops & t-shirts	☐	☐	☐
Sweaters & knitwear	☐	☐	☐
Pants, jeans & skirts	☐	☐	☐
Dresses & jumpsuits	☐	☐	☐
Outerwear & jackets	☐	☐	☐
Activewear & loungewear	☐	☐	☐
Shoes & boots	☐	☐	☐
Bags & purses	☐	☐	☐
Belts, scarves & accessories	☐	☐	☐
Formalwear & special occasion	☐	☐	☐

Ask of every piece: Have I worn it in the last 12 months? Does it fit me today? Would I buy it again right now? If it's three no's, let it go.

Shelf & Bin Labels

Cut along the dashed lines, a labeled bin is a bin that stays tidy.

BAGS OUT

RATING

Stick these on baskets, drawers and shelves so everything has a home. Two blanks are yours to fill in.
